

Learning Contract

As a Sixth Form student at Launceston College you have new rights and responsibilities which are set out below. Please read the contract carefully before you sign it and ask a parent or carer to witness your signature. Bring your contract with you to your enrolment interview; we cannot enrol you without it. It will be countersigned at enrolment by a member of the Sixth Form staff and will guarantee your place in the Sixth Form as long as you meet the obligations that are set out below.

Launceston College will;

Help you

- By offering advice and guidance in choosing your course
- By offering help and support while you are in the Sixth Form
- By offering guidance to you about your options when you leave College

Provide an education which

- Offers you opportunities to achieve your targets
- Develops the skills you will need to move on

In return students will;

- Attend all lessons, study support, tutorials and assemblies
- Be honest and co-operative with staff and fellow students
- Work hard to meet targets
- Abide by the procedure and standards expected of Sixth Form students as detailed in the student guide (available on the website www.launceston-college.cornwall.sch.uk) including the attendance policy and behaviour for learning policy
